UNIVERSITY POLICY REGARDING COMPLIANCE OF NATIONAL BIODIVERSITY ACT, 2002 AND NATIONAL BIODIVERSITY RULES, 2004 AT GURU JAMBHESHWAR UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY, HISAR

As per the University Grants Commission , Ministry of Human Resource Development , Govt. of India vide its letter no D.O. No. 14-6/2015 (CPP-II) dated 4th March 2015 all researchers/scientists/ teaching departments have to ensure strict adherence to the provisions of the National Biodiversity Act, 2002 and the National Biodiversity Rules, 2004.

The Act covers conservation, use of biological resources and associated knowledge occurring in India for commercial or research purposes or for the purposes of bio-survey and bio-utilization and provides a framework for access to biological resources and sharing the benefits arising out of such access and use. The Act also includes in its ambit the transfer of research results and application for intellectual property rights (IPRs) relating to Indian biological resources. The Act is applicable to foreigners, non-resident Indians, body corporate, association or organization that is either not incorporated in India or incorporated in India with non-Indian participation in its share capital or management. These individuals or entities require the approval of the National Biodiversity Authority when they use biological resources and associated knowledge occurring in India for commercial or research purposes or for the purposes of bio-survey or bio-utilization.

The Act, therefore, aims at conservation and sustainable use of biological resources and fair and equitable sharing of benefits arising out of the use of these biological resources and associated knowledge. A citizen of India or a body corporate, association or organization which is registered in India can obtain biological resource for commercial utilization, or bio-survey and bio-utilization for commercial utilization only after giving prior intimation to the State Biodiversity Board.

As per the D.O. No. 14-6/2015(CPP-II), dated 9th March, 2015 received from the University Grants Commission, All staff members, researchers, scientists and students of Guru Jambheshwar University of Science & Technology, its affiliated colleges are required to comply with the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

(1) Some of the important terms defined in the Act are as under:

Rajendra 15/10/2015

M. Min 15/10/15

i) "Biological Diversity" means the variability among living organisms from all sources and the ecological complexes of which they are part, and includes diversity within species or between species and of eco-systems.

(ii) "Biological Resources" means plants, animals and microorganisms or parts thereof, their genetic material and byproducts (excluding value added products) with actual or potential use or value, but does not include human genetic material.

(iii) "Bio-survey and Bio-utilization" means survey or collection of species, sub-species, genes, components and extracts of Biological resource for any purpose and includes characterization, inventorisation and bioassay.

(iv) "Commercial Utilization" means end uses of biological resources for commercial utilization such as drugs, industrial enzymes, food flavours, fragrance, cosmetics, emulsifiers, oleoresins, colours, extracts and genes used for improving crop and live stock through genetic intervention but does not include conventional breeding or traditional practices in use in any agriculture, horticulture, poultry, dairy farming, animal husbandry or bee keeping.

(2) Provisions of the Act requiring compliance are as under:

(i) A person who is not a citizen of India or is a non-resident Indian or a body corporate or an association or an organization not incorporated or registered in India or incorporated or registered in India but has non-Indian participation in its share capital and management, is required to seek approval of the National Biodiversity Authority to obtain any biological resource in India or the knowledge associated thereto for research, commercial utilization, bio-survey and bio-utilization.

(ii) A person is required to seek approval of the National Biodiversity Authority to transfer results of any research relating to any biological resources occurring in or obtained from India for monetary consideration or otherwise to any person who is not a citizen of India or is a non-resident Indian or a body corporate or an organization which is not registered or incorporated in India or which has non Indian participation in its share capital or management.

Transfer of results of research does not include publication of research paper or dissemination of knowledge in any seminar or workshop, if such publication is as per the guidelines issued by the Central Government.

Approvals as mentioned in Clauses (i) and (ii) above are not required for collaborative research projects involving transfer or exchange of biological resources or information relating thereto between institutions, including government sponsored institutions of India, and institutions in other countries. if such collaborative research projects conform to the policy guidelines issued by the Central Government in that behalf and are approved by the Central Government.

(iii) A person is required to seek approval of the National Biodiversity Authority before applying for any Intellectual Property Right, by whatever name called, in or outside India for any invention based on any research or information on a biological resource obtained from India. However, if a person applies for a patent, permission of the National Biodiversity Authority may be obtained after the acceptance of the patent but before sealing of the patent by the patent authority concerned.

(iv) A person who is a citizen of India or a body corporate or an association or an organization registered in India shall give prior intimation to the State Biodiversity Board before obtaining any biological resource for commercial utilization or bio-survey and bio-utilization for commercial utilization.

(3) Right to appeal: Any person, aggrieved by any determination of benefit sharing or order of the National Biodiversity Authority or a State Biodiversity Authority, may file an appeal to the High Court within thirty days from the date of communication of such order to him.

(4) Consequences of lack of compliance with the Act:

In cases where an approval of the National Biodiversity Authority/ State Biodiversity Board is required for the use of Indian biological resources and associated knowledge and such approval is not obtained, he/she is liable to punishment/fine or both as per provisions of the Act/ state rules applicable at that time.

(5) Forms of application, manner of making applications and payment of fees are prescribed in the Biological Diversity Rules, 2004. Details of these forms are as under:

(i) Form I: Application for access to biological resources and associated traditional knowledge;

(ii) Form II: Application for seeking prior approval of the National Biodiversity Authority for transferring the results of research to foreign nationals, companies, non-resident Indians, for commercial purposes;

(iii) Form III: Application for seeking prior approval of the National Biodiversity Authority for applying for Intellectual Property Right;

(iv) Form IV: Application for seeking approval of the National Biodiversity Authority for third party transfer of the accessed biological resources and associated traditional knowledge.

Further details of the Biological Diversity Act, 2002, the Biological Diversity Rules, 2004 and other information in regard to biodiversity are available at www.nbaindia.org.
